1. All members of Exec including myself and Rob participated in a tele-conference on Monday, 3/16 at 11:30 where we discussed what the usual course of elections schedule. Then we discussed what everyone's thoughts were on continuing with the timeline as it was with the limited operations of the University in place, including considerations of some staff not having access to online voting when not on campus.
2. On Tuesday 3/17 an email vote took place where all voting members of Exec unanimously voted in favor of postponing the elections.
