  - a. AM/PM
3. Guest Speakers:
  - a. Campus Safety Council (CSC) Representatives Mark Reynolds and Tish Young came to speak about what the CSC is, how it started, and what kind of issues they will be handling. Tish Young is the Co-Chair of the CSC along with Nasha Torres, and Mark Reynolds is the Staff Council representative on the CSC. They ask SC to weigh in about issues that we see or concerned about. The example of access control, to campus and to buildings, was given that other groups have noted as a concern. They report to the President in October and give recommendations to her based on all the feedback they are receiving. There was a discussion and questions for the CSC, and they have asked SC to:
    - i. CSC to work on message that we can send out to staff for feedback
    - ii. SC to use Mark to funnel concerns that we hear to the CSC
    - iii. Initial feedback that was given about staff issues:
      1. Lighting
      2. Cameras on Campus
      3. Are you considering the fence proposal?
      4. License plates readers
      5. Limiting access vs. being a community space
      6. Who's responsible for which thing?
      7. Phasing out contractor safety officers such as Securitas and using more UNM staff as security
      8. Night class issues – is there a way to have a security presence when classes get out late
        - a. Community Policing Advisory Committee – this is their area
      9. Recommendation to have a bigger forum for campus community to come voice their concerns
    - iv. Is there a way to get involved with the different committees?
